HOW TV'S FAVORITE DIVAS MIGHT SAY "I DO"

When it comes to dating, the women of Sex and the City make their own rules. Charlotte landed Mr. Right (sort of), while the others are still dreaming about Prince Charming. When they do snag their guys, Carrie and cohorts will walk down the aisle flaunting signature style. We flashback to one real wedding, while consulting our crystal ball for a look into the future.

	BRIDE	URBAN CHIC	CITY CELEBRATIONS	NEW YORK ACCENT	HONEYMOON HOT SPOT
CHARLOTTE		An embroidered confection of tulle, this Vera Wang gown was a real work of art. 	Bagpipes and tartan touches made for a Scottish-themed affair filled with kilty pleasures. 	Wearing his mom's heirloom Miki-moto pearls showed great tact—and wisdom. 	Charlotte and Trey high-tailed it to the Highlands for the ultimate Celtic connection.
	CARRIE	For a fashionista who can't make up her mind: a Reem Acra gown (left) and a sheer number by Erisa Katsura. 	It's love on the racks at a Barney's-style bash re-creating the store's legendary first floor. 	A sole survivor can't help but feel high and mighty in Stuart Weitzman's gilded stilettos, bursting with floral flair. 	A pilgrimage to the birthplace of the Bellini—Harry's Bar, in Venice.
MIRANDA		Mommy, schmommy—a girl's still got to look good, so Miranda goes belly up in Liz Lange's Grecian-style gown. 	She's keeping things brief—a tray of doughnuts and an urn of decaf in the conference room. 	A Palm Pilot in a sequined bag with her ob/gyn's pager number—just in case. 	The local maternity ward. Miranda never had great timing.
	SAMANTHA	The PR diva opts for a slinky Vera Wang sheath cut so close to the bod, underwear is a thing of the past. 	The last days of the Roman Empire—togas optional. Guests will eat, drink, and watch Ms. Jones be merry. 	The Hermès Birkin bag as bouquet—a way to tell the world, "I finally got my hands on one!" 	Where better than Thailand (the home of the full-body massage) for some passion and pampering?
